The Corporation of the CITY OF WHITE ROCK BYLAW 2517

A Bylaw to amend the
"White Rock Zoning Bylaw, 2024 No. 2506" as amended

The CITY COUNCIL of the Corporation of the City of White Rock in open meeting assembled ENACTS as follows:

1. White Rock Zoning Bylaw, 2024, No. 2506 as amended is further amended:

(1) Division 3.0 Interpretation and Definitions, Sub-Section 3.3.1 by adding the following definitions in alphabetical order:

- “bedroom” means a room located in a dwelling which, due to its design or location in the dwelling, is or may be used primarily for sleeping regardless of its use.
- “cooking facility” means a space with facilities for the preparation or cooking of food, and includes any room containing counters, cabinets, plumbing or wiring which taken together, may be used for the preparation or cooking of food.
- “crawlspace” means an interior building space at or below finished grade, between the underside of the floor system next above and the top of the floor slab on the ground surface below, having a vertical clearance less than 1.5 m.
- “height, ceiling” means the vertical distance from top of the finished floor of a story to:
 - a) the underside of the floor joist;
 - b) the underside of the roof joist;
 - c) the underside of the bottom chord of a structural truss; or
 - d) the underside of a structural deck above that storey.

Whichever is the greatest distance from the finished floor.

- “localized depression” means a depression below the finished grade, created for the purpose of providing a pedestrian entrance to a residential building.
- “party wall” means a shared supporting wall that is between two adjoining buildings and is situated on any part of the common boundary shared by adjoining free hold parcels of land.
- “preparation cooking facility, residential” means an accessory cooking facility to the principal cooking facility in a dwelling unit that is adjacent to the principal cooking facility and must be connected. The connection can be through a doorway that does not lock and forms part of the same dwelling unit as the principal cooking facility. A residential preparation cooking facility cannot exceed 9.0m².

- “rowhouse residential building” means a building containing a minimum of three and a maximum of six structurally independent dwelling units, all aligned in a row and divided vertically by party walls. Each dwelling unit is located on a separate freehold lot, and where permitted by this Bylaw, may include an accessory registered secondary suite.
- “semi-detached residential building” means a building containing two structurally independent dwelling units divided vertically with a party wall, with each dwelling unit located on a separate freehold lot and where permitted by this Bylaw, an accessory secondary suite.
- “window well” means a recess in the ground around a building to allow for the installation of a window in a basement, either below ground or partially below ground.

(2) Division 3.0 Interpretation and Definitions, Sub-Section 3.3.1 is amended by deleting the follows definition in their entirety:

- “accessory dwelling unit” means a dwelling unit located in an independent and separate structure to the principal residential structure located on the same free hold titled parcel of land.
- “ancillary building” means a building which is detached from, subordinate and customarily incidental to the principal building permitted on the same parcel of land and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, includes detached garages, detached carports, detached workshops and storage sheds.
- “basement” means the area of a building where the floor area is located no less than 0.6m (2.0ft) below average natural grade.
- “dwelling unit” means one or more habitable rooms used for the residential accommodation of one or more persons as an independent and separate residence containing cooking, living, sleeping and sanitary facilities, consisting of one stove and kitchen sink, and one or more sets of sanitary facilities for the exclusive use of such person or persons, but specifically excludes a recreational vehicle and does not include a room in a hotel.
- “habitable room” means a room used for cooking, eating, sleeping or living and includes a kitchen, dining room, bedroom, living room, family room and den, but excludes a recreation room, bathroom, utility room, workroom, furnace room and storage room.
- “house-plex” means a single residential building, located on a free hold parcel of land, containing no less than two dwelling units, one of which can be an accessory registered secondary suite, but no more than six dwelling units each of which has direct access to the outside, but does not include an apartment, townhouse or a hotel.

- “residential gross floor area” means the sum total of floor areas of each storey in a building containing a one-, two- or three-unit residential use, excluding a basement, cellar, crawl spaces, carport, garage, bay window, bow window or box window, elevator shafts, and areas occupied by stairs on the second storey of a building.

In SSMUH Residential zones, residential gross floor area means the sum total of floor areas of each storey in a building containing a one-unit residential use or house-plex, excluding a non-habitable basement, cellar, crawl spaces, carport, garage, bay window, bow window or box window, and elevator shafts.

- “structure” means any construction fixed to, supported by or sunk into land or water which is greater than 0.6m in height, excluding buildings, retaining walls, landscape trellises or arbors, in-ground swimming pools, and other similar works.
